

EXAMPLE OF SCAM USING OVERSEAS DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE'S NAME – FOR MORE INFORMATION SEE

<http://www.odi.org.uk/news/scams/default.asp>

From: Scott Weber <scowebe@gmail.com>

Subject: Further Response..

Date: Tuesday, April 7, 2009, 11:50 AM

Good day,

Thanks for the prompt reply,my name is Roland Brown,I work for a company called ODI(Overseas Development Institute,Poverty and Public Policy Group) but i still work as a freelance consultant for the institute and also assist the poverty and public policy which gives me very much time to do my own work which is basically being a freelance researcher who could be employed by research institutes to do research projects anywhere in the world.

here in the United Kingdom.I am presently working as a hiring manager.I will be on a special assignment out there,and the company will be sponsoring all my trip and and expenses.

I will like to know a little about you before i proceed and i need an urgent reply each time i write to you because i will be leaving here as soon as i get a good and competent driver that is ready to take me around for the offer of 400 daily.

I will like to know about you,

Where are you located?

Do you have any other job except driving?

Can you take me out anytime i need you to?,

can you show me around?Do you know places out there?

Here are questions i need to know before we proceed.

I will be waiting on your urgent reply because your reply will show how serious you want this job,because i will be leaving here as soon as you are ready to get started.

Very Respectful
Scott Weber