

RWANDAN GROUP:

INFUENCING LAND POLICY IMPLEMENTATION

LAND POLICY	What you need to know	Broad Action Steps	Possible Strategies
Political Context Who are the policy makers ( Cabinet ministers/executive) Is there demand for ideas ( Yes) What is the Policy Process ( Ministry of Lands and Environment which proposes)	Enforcing proper Land use practices Engaging f the Community Control Soil erosion and deforestation Land Law Impact on the communities	Review the policy document Consultations with the community in Bugesera Planting 1000 trees in Bugesera Sensitisation on good land use methods/better methods of farming	Setting up sub-committees to review the policy documents Organize 3 meetings in 2007 Prepare tree nurseries for 1000 plants and distribute the seedlings Making 1000 ha of Radical Terraces and 500 km of progressive terraces, 5 Trainings on soil conservation,

Evidence What is the current theory ( Massive tons of soils have been washed away and proved by the brownish color of Nyabarongo and Kagera rivers) What are the narratives (Land degradation, Low agricultural productivity Deforestation) How divergent is it ( deforestation, pastoralism, poor land use)	ICRAF/ISAR Research findings on Erosion MINAGRI Research on Erosion	Disseminate the Research findings on Progressive terracing on Radio and Newspapers twice amonth	Radio Rwanda, Conatct FM, Radio 10, TVR, Umuseso, Newtimes, Imvaho, Public meetinsg in villages, etc
Linkages Who are the stakeholders ( Ministries, donors, research institutions, NGO's, communities) What networks exist ( Land Net, NBDF, National Youth and Women Councils, Private Sector etc ) Who are the connectors ( Ministry of Environment, Agric, Local Govt) Mavens and salesmen	Level of Support by key ministries and the community Activities of networks	Lobbying and Advocacy, information dissemination Survey on NGO's operating in the district of Bugesera	Policy briefs, Newspaper articles, Radio announcement, meetings Quantitative and Qualitative Research
External Influences Media, Donors,	Their Interests	Survey on Donors funding to the district of Bugesera	Quantitative and Qualitative Research